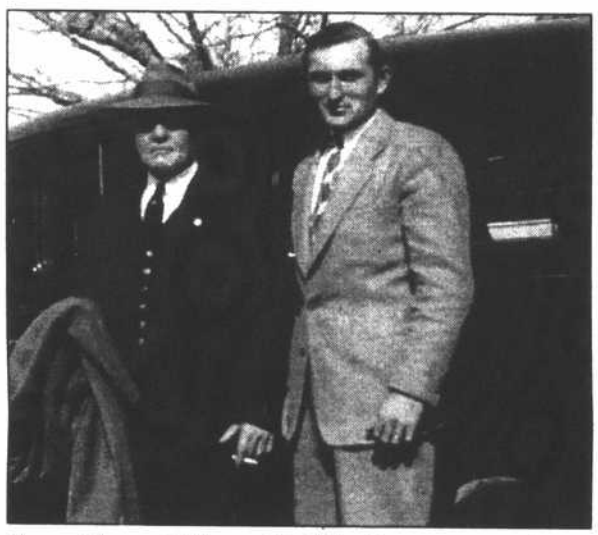
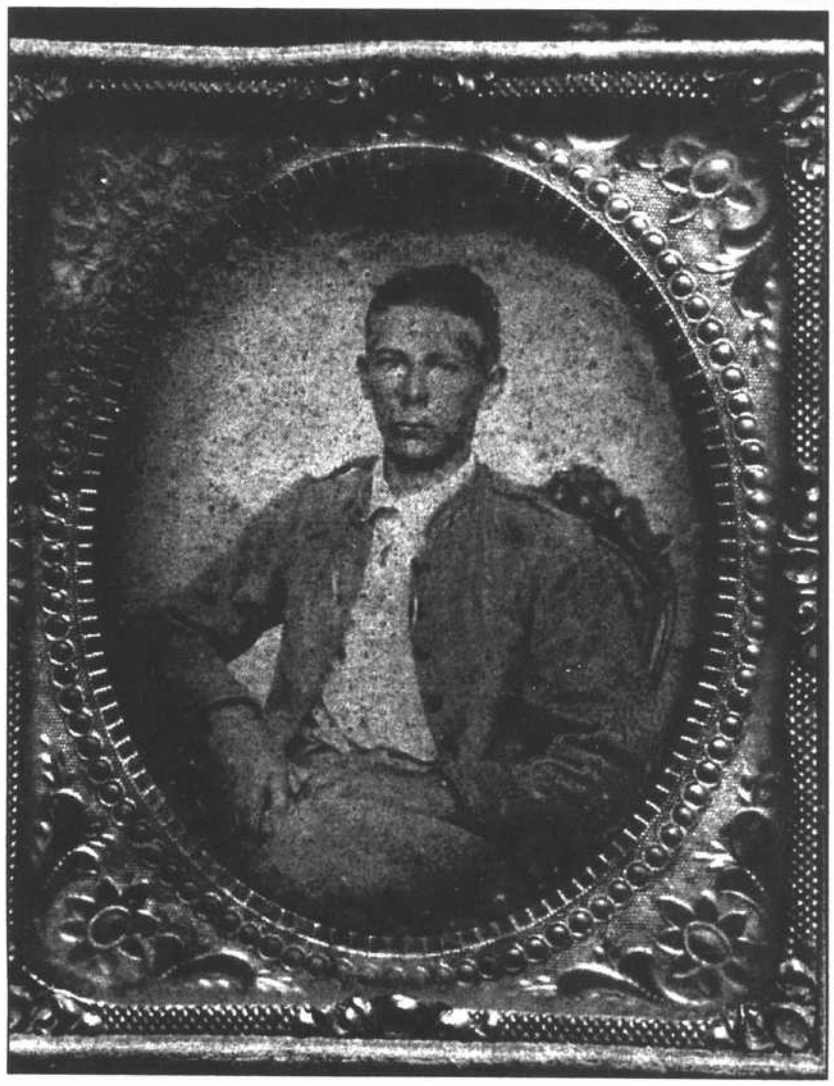
THE MEN

'Move-in' Jim Gallagher of Yorktown had help from his friends when he launched his Poquoson-built deadrise in 1957.

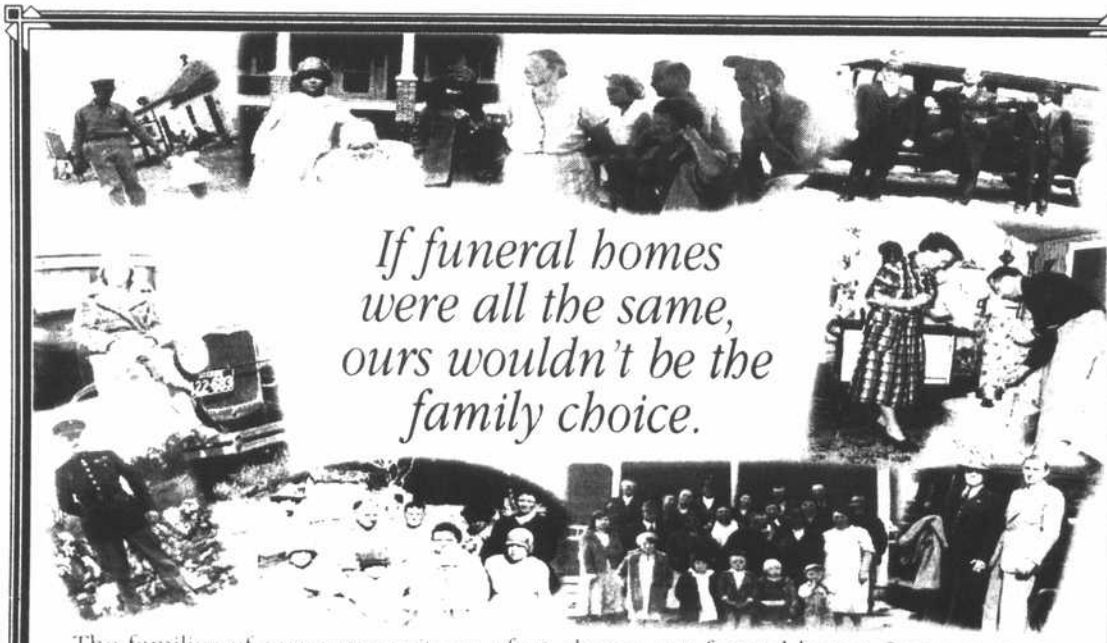
Yorktown's Herbert Lawrence Hartman escorted Herbert Hoover when the president came to town to celebrate the Sesquitennial in 1931.



George Claytor Rollins and H. Wiley Downs pause in front of a 1937 Pontiac hearse.



Hardy Wornom walked home from Appomattox to Poquoson when the Civil War was over.



If funeral homes were all the same, ours wouldn't be the family choice.

The families of our community so often choose our funeral home. Some come to us to pre-plan arrangements because we offer all the options and choices they desire. Others come to us at their time of need seeking guidance, support and certainty of a funeral service that is correct in every way. Should your family find itself in need of our services, we hope you'll make the choice so many in our community have.
